CYNTHIANA, JULY 1, 1869.

Democratic, Right or wrong.

[From the N. O. Picayune, June 15th.]
"C. S. A."
FORMATION OF A SOUTHERN HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

There was a regular meeting of this society last evening, in the office of the Howard Association, which was well attended, and important business transacted. Gen. Braxton Bragg officiated as President in the absence of Dr. Palmer.

The permanent constitution and by laws were read, adopted, and ordered to be published.

Letters were read from a number of the Vice Presidents elected at a previous meeting.

We append an official list of the officers of the society:

OFFICERS OF PARENT SOCIETY, NEW OR-LEANS, LOUISIANA.
Rev. B. M. Palmer, D. D., President; General Braxton Bragg, Vice President; Joseph Jones, M. D., Secretary and Treasurer.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE.
President, Vice President, and Secretary ex-officio, L. Dicks on Burns M. D., Hon. Thos. J. Semmes, W. S.
Pike, Gen. Harry T. Hays.

VICE PRESIDENTS OF STATES.
Gen. R. E. Lee, Va.; Hon. S. Tenniss, Miss.; Hon. D. H. Hill, N. C.; Gen. Wade Hampton, S. C.; Hon.
A. H. Stephens, Ga.; Admiral R.
Semmes, Ala.; Gov. Isham G. Harris, Tenn.; Gov. B. G. Humphreys, Miss.; Col. Ashbel Smith, Texas; Gen. Jno.
C. Breckinridge, Ky.; Gen. Trusten Polk, Mo.; Hon. A. H. Garland, Ark.; Hon. S. R. Mallory, Fla.

The following able address was read by the Secretary and Treasurer, Dr. Joseph Jones, and unanimously adopted. It very fully explains the object and scope of the society.

OFFICIAL CIRCULAR.
On the 1st of May, 1869, after several preliminary meetings, a number of gentlemen in the city of New Orleans formed themselves into a permanent association, under the style of "The Southern Historical Society," with the following general outline:

A parent society, to hold its seat and its archives in the city of New Orleans, with affiliating societies to be organized in all the States favorable to the object proposed; these in their turn branching into local organizations in the different townships —forming thus a wide fellowship of closely co-ordinated societies, with a common center in the parent association in this city.

The object proposed to be accomplished is the collection, classification, preservation and publication, in some form to be hereafter determined, of all the documents and facts bearing upon the eventful history of the past few years, illustrating the nature of the struggle from which the country has just emerged, defining and vindicating the principles which lay beneath it, and making the stages through which it was conducted to its issue. It is not understood that this association shall be purely sectional, nor that its labors shall be of a party-character.

Everything which relates to this critical period of our national history, preceding the conflicts antecedent or subsequent to it, from the point of view of either of both the contestants; everything, in short, which shall vindicate the truth of history to be industriously collated and filed; and all parties, in every section of the continent, who shall desire to co-operate in the attainment of these ends will be welcomed to a share in our councils and our toils.

It is doubtless true that an accepted history can never be written in the midst of the stormy events of which that history is comprised, nor by the agents through whose oblivion they were wrought. The strong passions which are evoked in every human conflict disturb the vision and warp the judgment in the scapes of whose criticism the necessary facts are to be weighed; even the relative importance of these facts cannot be measured by those who are in too close proximity. Scope must be afforded for the development of their remote issues before they can be brought under the range of a philosophic apprehension; and the secret thread be discovered, running through all history, upon which its single facts crystallize in the unity of some great providential plan.

The generations of the disinterested must succeed the generations of the prejudiced before history, properly termed such, can be written.
This, precisely, is the work we now attempt, to construct the archives in which shall be collected these memories to serve for future history.

It is believed that invaluable documents are scattered over the whole land, in loose sheets, perhaps, lying in the portfolios of private gentlemen, and only preserved as souvenirs of their own parts in the historic drama.

Existing in forms so perishable, regarded, it may be, as only so much waste paper by those into whose hands they must fall, no day shall be suffered in their collection and preservation.

There is doubtless too much that is yet unwritten, floating only in the memories of the living, which, if not speedily rescued, will be swallowed in the oblivion of the grave, but which, if reduced to record and collated, would afford the key to many a cipher in a little while to become unintelligible for want of interpretation.

All this various material, gathered from every section, will need to be industriously classified and arranged, and finally deposited in the central archives of the society, under the care of appropriate guardians.

To this task of collection, we invite the immediate attention and cooperation of our copatriots throughout the South, to facilitate which, we propose the organization of State and district associations, that our whole people may be brought into harmony of action in this important matter.

The rapid changes through which the institutions of the country are now passing, and the still more stupendous revolutions in the opinions of men, remind us that we stand today upon the outer verge of a great historic cycle, within which a completed past will shortly be enclosed.
Another cycle may touch its circumference; but the events it shall embrace will be gathered around an other historic center, and the future historian will pronounce that in stepping from the one to the other he has entered upon another and separate volume of the nation's record.
Let us who are soon to be in that past to which we properly belong see that there are no gaps in the record.

Thus shall we discharge a duty to the fathers whose principles we inherit, to the children who will then know whether to honor or to dishonor the sires that begot them, and, above all, to the dead heroes sleeping on the vast battle plains from Manassas to Vicksburg, whose epitaph history yet waits to engrave upon their tombs.

The funds raised by initiation fees, assessments, donations and lectures, after defraying the current expenses, will be appropriated to the rent or purchase of a suitable fire proof building for the safe keeping of the archives.

For the accomplishment of these ends contributions are respectfully solicited from all parties interested in the establishment and prosperity of the Southern Historical Society.

Contributions to the archives and library of the society are respectfully and earnestly solicited under the following specific divisions:

1. The histories and historical collections of the individual States from the earliest periods to the present time, including travels, journals, and maps.

2. Complete files of the newspapers, periodicals, literary, scientific, and medical journals of the Southern States, from the earliest times to the present day, including especially the period of the recent American civil war.

3. Geological, topographical, agricultural, manufacturing, and commercial reports, illustrating the statistics, climate, soil, resources, products and commerce of the Southern States.

4. Works, speeches, sermons, and discourses relating to the recent conflict and political changes, Congressional and State reports, during the recent war.

5. Official reports and descriptions by officers and privates and newspaper correspondents and eye-witnesses of campaigns, military operations, battles, and sieges.

6. Military maps.

7. Reports upon the munitions, arms, and equipment, organization, numbers and losses of the various branches of the Southern armies-- infantry, artillery, cavalry, ordnance, and commissary and quartermaster departments.

8. Reports of the Adjutant General of the late U. S. A., and of the Adjutant General of the armies, departments, districts and States, showing the resources of the individual States, the available fighting population, the number, organization and losses of the forces called into actual service.

9. Naval operations of the Confederate States.

10. Operations of the Nitro and Mining Bureau.

11. Commercial operations.

12. Foreign relations, diplomatic correspondence, etc.

13. Currency.

14. Medical statistics and medical reports.

15. Names of all officers, soldiers and sailors in the military and naval service of the Confederate States, who were killed in battle, or died of disease and wounds.

16. Names of all wounded officers, soldiers and sailors. The nature of the wounds should be attached to each name; also the loss of one or more limbs should be carefully noted.

17. Published reports and manuscripts relating to civil prisoners held during the war.

18. All matters, published or unpublished, relating to the treatment, diseases, mortality, and exchange of prisoners of war.

19. The conduct of the hostile armies in the Southern States. Private and public losses during the war.
Treatment of citizens by hostile forces.

20. Number, occupation, condition, and conduct of the colored population. Effect of emancipation upon the negro, and upon the material prosperity of the South.

21. Southern poetry, ballads, songs, &c.

All communications, works, and reports must be addressed (by mail or express, prepaid), to Dr. Joseph Jones Secretary and Treasurer of the Southern Historical Society, New Orleans, La.

[For the Cynthiana News]
JUNE 21st, 1869.

MR. MOREY: Through the columns of your paper I wish to say that I am the "M." who replied, or took exceptions to a short paragraph in your local, some time since, and for which, it seems, an attempt was made, in your last week's issue, to use me up, if we may judge of the article over the signature of "N."

Therefore, in placing myself on the side of the cleopatra, I will repeat the lines of Cleopatra to her lovers.
She says,
"Come not cringing to me!
Take me with triumph and power-- As a warrior that storms a fortress!
I will not shrink nor cower."

The statements made in the 3d of June News were communicated to me by my father, were received as facts, and can be proven by others; and further, he helped to lay the foundation stones, more than forty years ago; his father gave a portion of the grounds, more than one third of the money, and did more than any other person to erect the house. In view of these facts, it seems to me, he has as good right to know as "N," or his informant, whether Mt. Zion is a "Republican Church" or not.

The church was built before my day and generation, but I am of the opinion when "N" comes out in his full name and character, he also will have to acknowledge he was not "there," but received his information like myself, from others. Grandfather removed to the State of Indiana sometime after the Church was built, and died there; but ere he died, the deed was taken to him by my father, and duly signed by his own hand, after which it was brought back and placed in the hands of Mr. M. Dills who intended to place it upon record. It was it seems, by some mistake not recorded, and finally as "N" informs us, "it cannot be found"; hence my signal failure. Again, in regard to the church in question belonging to the M. E. Church South-- "N" make the following wonderful revelations: "there are some ponderous facts to be removed before it can be substantiated. In this land of law and order people have deeds to their property; and it is but reasonable to expect, and right to produce papers, when exclusiveness is claimed or denied. This our friends cannot do; they have no deed to the church; or at least it is not recorded in the Clerk's office." "Consistency than art a jewel." If "N" is responsible for the original "paragraph," who should "produce papers?" for as we said before, (and we appeal to all to bear us witness,) Mt. Zion is a Methodist Church: now "N," or at least the "original" says, it is a "Republican Church." If he has an interest therein let him show it.
Again, as to "exclusiveness claimed or denied" being ground of great importance why "papers" should be "produced," we think just the opposite, for if several denominations had built the church in common, as common property, long ere this some one would have seen that the "Deed" was on record. But as Mt. Zion had been a Methodist Church for so many years, the short sight of man did not perceive that the title would be ground for contention. Again, "the testimony of the oldest citizens, some of them subscribers, is to establish the fact, &c." Here a question arises-- who are these "old citizens, subscribers?" Again, "any religious denomination had a right to use it, when not occupied by others." We cannot see, even if this were so, how it would make the church "Republican" when a lengthy experience and history show the "others" here meant to be Methodists; and why cast all the blame on the Methodists for "locking out," considering the church common property; and if so, is one denomination more excusable than any other, if not very often have other preachers been invited?

Have not the members of the Christian Church themselves failed to discharge their duty by neglecting to "invite" their "preachers?" Did they wish us to "invite" when they (according to the "memory of the oldest citizens," owned part and parcel?

Again, "you tried the same game of "locking out" on a Universalist preacher." We will remember of hearing Rev. Mr. Holiday and Rev.
Bishop Forsythe preach in Mt. Zion, and we are reliably informed that Rev. Mr. Strimann also has delivered discourses there, and (we almost forgot to state) rumor says a Rev. Mr.
Neal has also filled her pulpit. I think no one will deny that the first is a Baptist, the second was a Presbyterian, the third a Universalist and the fourth a Christian or Reformer.

Now we said other ministers had been invited to fill her pulpit--here they are. Any sane man might comprehend that the reference made to "going up and possessing the goodly land" was merely allegorical, only meaning to illustrate the attempt made by those "few individuals" to take Mt. Zion unto themselves; yet "N" dodges the inference to attack us on one of our "weak points," and says: "These fears show not only their Faith, in the Fountain they are built upon; also their acquaintance with Theology--and in the light of both perhaps their fears are not groundless." Points of doctrine are not at issue, and if they were, in our limited acquaintance with Theology, as a sentence, we are unable to cope with so perfect a Theologian.
Our gross ignorance will not allow us to

"Weave a circle round him thrice, And close our eyes with holy dread, For he on honey-dew hath fed,
And drunk the milk of Paradise."

After examining the "three reasons" again, he concentrates the whole affair in a nutshell and concludes, "the act was both illegal and un-Christian; and if they succeed the legality, the Christianity, they cannot by the word of God or of man." "N" conclusion is but a verification of an old proverb which we cannot correctly quote, but the burden of which is,
"Convince a man against his will,
And he'll persist in error still."

For he fails to see any evidence that the church belongs to the Methodists, although they have "locked and unlabeled" the doors, at their own pleasure, for forty years, and this too, in a "land of law and order" where "people have deeds to their property;" though he can see the "word of God" is insufficient to "Christianize the act." We say thank Heaven God is our Judge, not man.

For further information we would recommend friend "N" to such citizens as James McGraw, Harvey Rowland, Edward Garbutt, Paul King, Sr., Tobias Mattox, William Marshall, Edmund Johnson, Wesley Barrett, H.
McWhiter, Parker Whiteaker, Elijah Mattox, Eliza Reese and Thomas Beasman.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN W. MATTON.

An excellent system of gardening in the morning; sow buttons on your husband's shirts; do not rake up any grievances; protect the young and tender branches of your family; plant and carefully root out all bad feelings.

T. J. McGibben, Esq.

This gentleman is before the people for nomination for the Legislature. He is in favor of internal improvements, under all circumstances. He is opposed to the School Tax of 15 cents on the hundred dollars. He is opposed to the Radical innovations, and the 15th Amendment and all other wrongs which that party have practiced on the people.

Hon. M. D. Martin.

Our worthy representative in the Lower House of the General Assembly made a speech to his constituents last Saturday. It was a good common sense talk, with no concealments. He asserted plainly that he opposed the Turnpike Tax while it was before the people, but now that it had become a law he gave in his adhesion to it.

He was opposed to the School tax of fifteen per cent, and would vote against it.

Mr. Martin then announced to the meeting that he had withdrawn from the canvass, and would not continue on the track for re-election to the Legislature.

The people of the County of Harrison have reason to be proud of the manner in which he represented them at Frankfort, and we can say to Mr. Martin, in their behalf, "well done good and faithful servant." None truer, or more faithful, has ever been sent from Harrison.

FIRE.

Thursday, about fifteen minutes after 10 o'clock, a fire was discovered in Peck, Vanhook & Co's distillery, having caught from a defective flue. In less than 10 minutes after it was discovered the whole building was wrapped in flames. We never before saw the devouring element so speedy in its destruction. The fire was so intense and hot that it communicated itself, in a body as it were, to the warehouse, which, in less than an hour after having caught, was a heap of ashes. The whiskey, being unconfined, threw out such intense heat that it was rendered impossible to save some of the barrels that was even a stone's throw from it. The burning whiskey, after the barrels were burst, spread over the lot, in streams of flame; then, escaping to the creek, was mingled with its waters, and lost beyond reclaim.

The fire had 1,701 barrels in packages in warehouse; 60 barrels in cistern; and 2,000 bushels of grain. The grain and the whiskey in cistern was all lost. 105 barrels had been withdrawn, (tax paid) leaving 1,544 barrels in store. 300 barrels of this quantity belonged to J. L. Pugh, of Cincinnati, all of which but about 65 barrels was destroyed; the whole of his being covered with insurance.

D. Gibson & Co. had 100 barrels, of which they lost about 70; no insurance. There were 1,045 barrels rescued from the warehouse.

The loss to the firm in whiskey was 211 barrels. Their total loss, including distillery, whiskey, grain, warehouse, &c., is about $25,000 or $30,000; no insurance.

They are clearing away the debris and will commence rebuilding immediately. They propose to build a substantial brick house, as nearly fire-proof as can be built.

CYNTHIANA, June 30th, 1869.

Mr. MOREY: Will you please to announce through the columns of your paper, that I will speak publicly at Berry's Station, to as many of the citizens of the Colemanville district as wish to hear me, on Saturday, July 3d, at 3 o'clock, P. M. In compliance with the expressed desire of many of my friends of the Colemanville Precinct, I shall explain my position on the various issues that will be likely to come up at the meeting of the next Legislature.

My friend, T. J. McGibben, Esq., is kindly invited to be present.

Refuse everything but "garret's!"

SAVED ASUNDER.—Last Friday a most terrible accident overtook the family of Mr. W. B. Hildreath, who resides in this county, near Berry's Station. His son, a lad of sixteen, named James, was at the circular saw-mill of Mr. Earles, below Berry's Station, and by some mishap or other had a portion of his left foot cut off with the saw, and losing his balance, fell on it, when he was literally cut asunder, from his left shoulder diagonally across to his right side, the saw passing through his heart. His sufferings were of but a moment's duration.

CYNTHIANA, June 29, 1869.

Mr. Editor: The distillery and ware houses of the undersigned having been destroyed by fire on the 24th inst., we desire to have this inserted in your paper to acknowledge our gratitude and thankfulness to the citizens, who aided us so efficiently in saving part of our property.

PECK, VANHOOK & CO.

CYNTHIANA, Ky., June 29, '69. ODDVILLE CIRCUIT.

Mr. Editor: Please say to the friends of Zion, that we have just closed a meeting at "row Chapel," in this county, which had been protracted for several days, with most gratifying results; 49 persons united with the church, 20 of whom, we trust, were hopefully converted. Some were heads of families, and all were of the first citizens of that community. To God be all the praise.

W. H. WINTER.

We learn from the Lexington Statesman that an effort was made at the late Republican Convention in Lexington to get a resolution adopted in opposition to the removal of the political disabilities of persons who were in the Confederate service, but the Committee on Resolutions refused to report it from the fact that the party was divided on the subject. The Statesman adds:

"We believe that action was wise. Congress, it is true, refused to remove disabilities last winter, but we believe they will not do so this time. This feeling is growing among Republicans, that the time has come for a general removal of all hindrances to late rebels holding office and voting. Universal amnesty and universal suffrage seems to be the prevailing policy. We have always considered it an unwise one, and fear that it will yet plague us."

D. A. Givens says his accounts are now due, and hopes his patrons will promptly pay the same, as he needs the money. — July 1, 2w.

A distinguished Methodist Minister and prominent Temperance Lecturer once remarked that go where he would, from one end of the country to the other, he hardly ever failed to find Plantation Bitters, and while he condemned the practice of using these Bitters too freely, he could not conscientiously say that he would discard them from the side-board, for he had himself experienced beneficial results from their use, and that, from a long and close observation, he was convinced that when used moderately, and as a medicine exclusively, they were all that was recommended. At the same time he warned his hearers not to pull the cork too often, for they were far too pleasurable to trifle with.

Nature is the Great Physician.
This is now admitted, by the medical profession as a fundamental principle of healing science. It is wisely provided by the human economy that whenever anything is wrong in the physical system the natural forces of the body are brought to bear to expel the disease. The great aim, therefore, is to strengthen the natural powers. This has been kept in view by the skillful compounders of HOSKETT'S STOMACH BITTERS, which operates to give fresh vitality to all the organs of the body. The effect of this medicine upon the stomach, the liver and the kidneys, is prompt and decisive. The patient who is wise enough to quit trying the Bitters, and try the Bitters, such as he is, if he had taken a new sense of life, and as he continues the use of the article, it is overjoyed to find the streams of health coursing through his frame. It is free from the objection so often urged against preparations of the kind, as a Medical Agent it has no equal, while its pleasing flavor and headful effects have made it a general favorite. It is free from all impurities, and is perfectly pure, and its operation is at once mild, soothing and efficient. All who have used Hoskett's Stomach Bitters attest its virtues. Even those who are in the enjoyment of perfect health frequently have need to have recourse to it as a preventive of disease. We are never so well armed against the assaults of "the Bitters that flesh is heir to." In health or sickness this bottle cannot be taken regularly without giving vitality and elasticity to the system.

LOCAL MATTER.

Esq. Barrett's Court adjourned last Monday.

The young people of this region enjoyed their picnic, last Saturday, hugely.

The Agents of the K. C. R. R. commenced building a Passenger Depot at this place last Monday.

We hear that farmers in Fayette county have made contracts to sell their wheat at $1 per bushel.

The young men of Cynthiana will give a Social Hop at the Harrison House, Thursday, July 8. Saxton's Quadrille Band will be in attendance.

R. C. Wheritt requests us to say to his friends that his accounts are now due, and that he needs money, and must have it.—Jy. 1-4.

"Barrett's" Lustrous Hair Restorative.

Mr. George Briggs, a distiller in the employ of Peck, Vanhook & Co., died in this city on last Tuesday, from pneumonia. He contracted the disease at the business of his distillery last Thursday.

The "Missouri Democracy," edited and published by W. W. Gruffe, has been revived. The office was stolen from the Editor while he was absent in St. Louis recently.

Nine hogsheads of Tobacco were shipped from this Depot to Covington last week. It was grown in this county by Henry Ogle. The tobacco crop has become one of interest to our people.

"Barrett's" takes the lead.

We have been called upon again by many citizens, who have expressed their contempt in round terms at the manner in which the Council have permitted the old cemetery to be used. Shall we see this continued?

"Barrett's" sold everywhere.

A Benevolent Society, formed of the colored people of this section, made a very showy appearance in their blue regalia last Monday, the occasion being the burial of Jerry Tomlinson, a colored man of some notoriety in this city, who died Sunday evening.

A splendid thing—"Barrett's."

A MAN KILLED.—On Saturday last a young man named Jas. M. Burchfield, who hails from Tennessee, and who has been engaged at work for Gen. Desha, and lately for Hugh Miller, Esq., was in Cynthiana, and partaking too freely (as we have been informed,) of intoxicating drinks, with several others. Late at night he left town, in company with two other men, and traveled in the direction of Fair's Station, on the Railroad. From all we can suppose, he concluded to pass the night on the Railroad track, something over one mile South from Cynthiana. About 12 o'clock Saturday night his body was found, by the workmen on the wood train, lying on the track, near Kimbrough's bridge, with his head cut from his body and terribly mangled; his feet cut off; and his whole person horribly mutilated. The night freight train, with sixteen cars, had passed over him.

The question to be solved and set down in the minds of our people just now, must be, whether Mr. Burchfield was so drunk that he laid himself down on the track? or whether he had been foully dealt? with, and then laid upon the track, to hide and cover up the foul deeds of his slayers?

This railroad game has been played very well, but it is time it should be brought to end immediately. The law makes us responsible for the lives of our neighbors; and the men who were with Mr. Burchfield should be arrested and incarcerated immediately.

The National Publishing Co., of Cincinnati, have just issued a work of great value to Farmers, Professional and Business men, entitled "Laws of Business for all the States of the Union," by Prof. Parsons, of Harvard University. The writer is acknowledged authority on Law, and is the author of several Standard Law Books. See advertisement in another column.

LUNACY.—Some weeks since a colored woman was arrested on the streets of Cynthiana, as a vagrant and pauper, and was sent to the County Poor House, where she remained until last Monday, when she was brought before a jury and condemned as a lunatic. While at the Poor House she was very pugnacious and whipped everybody on the place, black and white. "The colored troops fought nobly."

EARLY REMINISCENCES.

TREATING OF EVENTS IN CYNTHIANA.

Cynthiana is so changed in its appearance and proportion that persons who have been absent ten or twenty years, who were even raised here, do not recognize many of its localities.

Where now stands Dr. McNeer's new building, south-west corner of Main and Pleasant streets, stood the old house occupied at an early day by Barton Ingraham, where he vendicated liquor by retail in "ticklers."—Small bottles holding a half pint.—Adjoining it on the south stood the house then occupied by old "Black Stuart;" and on the corner of the same square, opposite the Court-house, Alexander Derrin's large brick house, which was burned down on the 4th March, 1835.

What is now called Shumate's corner was formerly known as the Paton tavern stand—a large brick house in front, with frame ell running east of it on Pleasant street. South of it stood Smith's carriage shop, and Kimbrough's shoe shop. Next was a large frame house, owned by January & Wall, and occupied partly as a saddler shop, and partly as a shoe store. These stood on the grounds where the old Red House once stood, where Mrs. Arnold once lived, which was afterwards used by John and George Hamilton as a saddler shop. Next to it stood the brick dwelling and store-room of B. S. Wilson, and next between it and the McMillan house, a large log house. All of these houses were destroyed on the morning of the 4th of March, 1835, by fire.—Perhaps the coldest day that has, within the memory of men, been felt in March in this climate.

Where Northen's store and dwelling now stands there stood a large brick house. The lower part of the house was occupied as a store room and the residue, together with the upper part, as a dwelling. South of this stood, where the Commercial Bank now stands, the store and dwelling house of Wesley Broadwell. These houses, together with the old Court House, were destroyed by fire on the 21st of January, 1851. Also the two small frame offices, west of the brick house, on the corner; and the large frame stable that stood on the west end of the Northen lot. The jail house and whipping post stood north of the Court House, on the ground now being macadamized between the Court House and Jones' row. The market house stood on the north side of the Court yard, there was at that time butcher stalls in the market house. Thos. Elder's in the south-east corner, and on the opposite side that of Pink McMurtry. The engine house was petitioned off of part of the market house. The old Engine, if now in existence, would excite the curiosity of the scientific; wonderful was the fire hooks, ropes and Engine, in the eyes of the prime five youth of the valley. But these have passed away.

Cynthiana was then an isolated town. But the narrative: Where Mr. Walton now has a side yard to his dwelling stood the old frame house of "Crook Hutchison." Next the brick then owned by Aunt Fanny Crowwhite, and next to it, on the alley, the house of Robert Houston. Then, on the south-side the Pomeroy house; next to which was the large frame building, used by Mr. Samuel Endcott, (of immortal fame as a teacher of youth, and particularly for his vigorous administration of the hickory,) for a school house. Then Mrs. Rafter's house, adjoining which on the south-side, stood the brick house of Uriah Woodyard. These houses were all destroyed by fire in 1861. Below the corner of the Woodyard lot stood a two story log house, which was occupied by Musser & Pomeroy, as a hatter shop. This was burned down in 1829.

On the corner where Otwell's Drug Store stands there stood a two story rough stone house. It was taken down, and the brick house of Asbery Broadwell erected in its stead. South of it stood the brick house then owned by Jesse Vanderrin. Next to this stood brick house then owned by Ben. Warfield, of Lexington, the lower part of which was occupied by Thos. Ware as a store room, and the upper part as a dwelling house by Levi F. Dougherty, now of Covington. He is always proud to be regarded as a grand old citizen of that obscure but proud old town of Cynthiana. Once the boys threw fire balls at an elephant which so alarmed him that he ran into Dougherty's hall. Shows then came into town after dark to keep the boys from seeing the elephant.

South of the Mayfield house stood the brick, then owned by Jos. Vanderrin, who had a shoe store below and a dwelling above stairs. Adjoining it stood the large frame house then occupied as a dwelling and tailor shop. Next to this stood the brick house used by a man named Culver, as a dwelling and small grocery, who afterwards went to Louisville. Next to this was the old three story brick tavern house, and on the south-side of the alley stood a two story log, and a row of one story frame houses south, down to another two story log house. The one in the corner of the alley was then occupied by a Baptist preacher named Greatrake, who published and printed a paper in one of the small houses below it. The log house below the frames was occupied by Webster for a grocery, and James Tomlinson had his shoe shop in the frame adjoining it, and lived in the brick house on the site of the one his widow now lives in. All these houses were destroyed June 14, 1864 at the time of the battle between Morgan and Col. Gaines' forces.

Going east from Main street on Pike, next to Broadwell's corner, stood a one story frame, owned by John S. Boyd. Next was Roy's tin shop. Adjoining this the brick house built and used by Dr. Woodruff for a drug store; then the one story frame, owned by Webster; then the old James Coleman house, a two story brick. After Coleman died it was sold to Major Curry, who resided in it many years, and then sold it to John S. Finley, Esq. It stood nearly on the ground now occupied by Mark Broadwell's warehouse. From the Coleman house to back street was used as a garden.

Where J. D. Renaker's Drug Store stands was then a vineyard, and from it to the corner stood a row of shoe-tailor shops, shoe shops, &c. These were torn away and good substantial brick buildings put in their places, by Miller & Redmon, J. W. McIntosh and Jacob F. Miller—the house at the last named standing on the corner. East of this stood Webster's store house, a large frame that has been built by J. M. January, for a ware house, wood shed, &c. Webster transformed and made a commodious store house out of it. Next the frame house, then owned by J. H. Frazer and occupied by G. Flyrmeane—where his brick house now stands—there stood the large frame saloon where so many "Brandy Cobblers," and "Straight Coppers," were disposed. This was the place where the good fellows and jovial used to congregate. Next came Frimble's office, (a new frame building) from which to Oxley's wagon and blacksmith shop—on the corner—nothing stood. On the other corner stood Rankin's stable, and on the corner where Jos. Shawhan's store house now stands, stood the frame house that Lewis Jones erected for a blacksmith shop. Immediately south of and adjoining it stood a two story log house which was used for a dwelling. All of these houses were destroyed by fire on the 10 June 1864. (To be Continued.)

On June 29, at the M. E. Church South, Lexington, by the Rev. S. X. Hall, Mr. L. P. Young, Jr., to Miss Emma Feather, both formerly of Lexington.

BIRTHS.

To the wife of Mr. R. L. Hays, of Lexington, a daughter—Carrie Huggins.

To the wife of H. E. Ashurst, Esq., of Georgetown, a son.

To the wife of John S. Phelps, Esq., of Lexington, a daughter—Annie.

To the wife of Dr. A. S. Talbert, of Lexington, a son.

To the wife of Mr. L. P. Milward, of Lexington, a daughter.

To the wife of Mr. Robert McElhany, of Lexington, a daughter.

To the wife of J. T. Nesbit, of Bourbon, on the 19th inst., a daughter.

To the wife of Judge J. S. Boyd, of this city, on the 17th, a son.

To the wife of Mr. George Voorheis, of Woodford, a daughter.

DIED.

At the residence of his father, in Woodford, on the 24th inst., James Hurd eldest son of Dr. Alford Hurd, aged about 25 years.

In this city, on Thursday morning, June 17th, after a painful illness of five days, Stanley Withers only son of J. S. and Kitty Withers, in the tenth year of his age.

We will not intrude upon the sacred grief which bows down the hearts of the stricken family by empty words of human consolation. In the presence of a bereavement so great, we can but mingle our grief with theirs, and pray that "He who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb" will temper this affliction to the bereaved ones. Death at all times is terrible, but when it invades the circle of a happy home and bears away, one after another, the cherished ones of loving parents, it is doubly terrible. Within a few years three of this afflicted household—Roger, Hood and Stanley—have "fallen asleep in Jesus," and now their little forms lie side by side in the graveyard, out their gentle spirits rest with a kind saviour, "for of such is the kingdom of heaven." Stanley was a bright boy, above his years in knowledge; a favorite with schoolmates and companions; of a kind and loving disposition; but the most beautiful trait of character which marked his young life was the serene religious feeling which seemed to pervade his whole being. Of him it may be truly said, "He was far more fitted for heaven than earth. He was a devoted Sunday School scholar, regular in attendance and of an attentive and teachable disposition. At his funeral his schoolmates gathered around him and sang those touching songs "Asleep in Jesus" and "Children in Heaven." And then the body of Stanley Withers was to be borne away to the grave; but his bright example shall live after him, and his memory be cherished, until the now broken family circle shall be reunited in a purer and better world, "where Jesus shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."—Western Citizen.

AMERICAN SHUTTLE
Sewing Machine.
Is retailed at a price within the reach of all. It uses a straight needle, makes the lock stitch (stitch on both sides), has a self-adjusting to-shut, and can do every variety of sewing. It will hem, fold, bind, cover hand-sewn, quilt, ticks, muffs, and gather will work equally as well on silk, linen, woolen or cotton goods, with silk, linen, cotton thread.
AMERICAN SHUTTLE MACHINE IS Warranted for Five Years.
Our agents will be furnished with implicate parts of the machine in case of accident. It makes precisely the same stitch made by the Singer, Wheeler & Wilson, Brooks and Florence machines. It has the modern tread, like the best of high-priced machines, and is the only low priced shuttle machine in the market that has this feat.
We are enabled to sell a first-class shuttle machine at a very low price, on account of its simplicity, and consequent low cost of manufacturing, in comparison with complicated machines.
AGENTS.
We wish to arrange with agents, male or female, to represent the American Shuttle Sewing Machine, in each State, county and town in the United States and Canada.
Extra inducements to experienced agents.
For further particulars, as to salary of Commission, address
G. V. N. ANDREWS, Gen. Ag't, Detroit, Mich.
